

ECO ISSUE

porLITE

Porlite emphasizes environmental protection from production to disposal.

The main material of Porlite is made up of carbon and hydrogen molecules. It is burnable with very low environmental impact and meets the standards on environmentally friendly in terms of saving energy and non-toxic emission. After all, Porlite creates no harm to human bodies and the earth.

We need environmental actions without further delay.

